EYES SPEAK

Volumes, at times, of woman's happiness or misery. The dull, sunken eye, with its dark circles almost surely speaks of womanly ill-health, and its attendant suffering. With the dull eye goes usually the sallow, sunken cheek, the drawn mouth, the shrunken form—the whole glory of woman's beauty marred by the effects of disease.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which undermine the health and mar the beauty of women. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free, and so obtain the advice of a specialist upon their disease. All correspondence is strictly private, and is answered by mail. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"With pleasure I send a few lines to let you know that I feel much better than for eight years before taking your medicine," writes Mrs. Pierce, of 30 West 11th Street, New York. "I will recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to every person who may inquire as to what it has done for me. I was troubled with female weakness and began to think I would never be well. If I had continued the treatment prescribed by my doctor I don't know what would have become of me. When your treatment was commenced my weight was 105 pounds, at present it is 130. I have healthy color and my friends say I look well. My best thanks to you and my best wishes, too, for what you have done for me."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

THE NEGRO IN THE HOUSE.
Mr. Gilbert (democrat of Kentucky) made a speech in the House of Representatives yesterday defending, as he announced, his State from the aspersions that had been cast upon it by Mr. Gillett, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Brownell, of Ohio, and certain newspaper writers with reference to the treatment of the negro in that State. "There is not a white girl in Kentucky, of the meanest, lowest, most ignorant station of life," he said, "that would not marry the lowest, meanest, white man in the world rather than the most cultivated and educated negro in the country."
He called upon the republicans to quit their hypocritical cant and rot about a taint of blood. When there was a colored man in this House from South Carolina, he asked, did any republican of this House invite him to lunch? To his home? "No you did not. You will tell us how to treat the negro, but you won't practice what you preach." He turned his attention to a statement he accredited to Mr. Brownell, of Ohio, that the people of Kentucky were savages. He said there was more crime in Cincinnati alone, or in Boston, than there is in the whole State of Kentucky. He referred to the treatment accorded to the men, who, charged with the murder of a Kentucky official, made their way to the north and were everywhere met with open arms and smiles and the waving of handkerchiefs.
Mr. Gillett, of Mass., replied to Mr. Gilbert. He admitted that there was a prejudice against the negro in Massachusetts, but that he did not think the negro should force their abhorrence of the negro on every one. In view of the abhorrence, the feeling of repulsion of the Southerner for the negro, he expressed astonishment at the great number of mulattoes in the South.
Booker T. Washington was dragged into the discussion by Mr. Bartlett, democrat, of Georgia. He asked Mr. Gillett if it were not true that he had been turned away from a Boston hotel because of his color.
Mr. Gilbert charged that Mr. Gillett was dodging the question, and he asked him if he had ever invited an negro to his home.
"No, I never have," he replied, "but I would not be so mean as to criticize any man who did."

FELL WHILE "LOOPING THE LOOP."
Persons who gathered in the Madison Square Garden, in New York Saturday night to watch the attempt of Harry R. Polloy, of Syracuse, to "loop the loop," an act which forms the principal feature of the daily performance, witnessed an accident that nearly resulted in the death of the venturist. As it was he escaped with a badly sprained ankle and a severe shaking up. Polloy, who for several years has been a trick bicycle rider, had been engaged to act as substitute for Diavolo, who goes through the perilous ride twice daily, and had been practicing at the Sea Beach Palace, at Coney Island, for the last two weeks on an inclined track. He started down the track at a speed estimated at little less than 50 miles an hour and guided his wheel safely into the loop. As the machine began to turn the tremendous pressure of the curve pulled the rear wheel off. The machine collapsed and the helpless rider was whirled to the top of the curve and fell a distance of 23 feet to the track below, breaking the plank with the force of his fall. The bystanders rushed to where he had fallen, believing him to be dead, but to their surprise he sat up and began rubbing his ankle. He was a trifle stunned and badly shaken up, but beyond the sustained no injury. After a few minutes he was assisted out of the ring, limping painfully.

GAMBLERS FINED.—A large number of gamblers were fined $30 each in the Police Court in Richmond on Saturday and to many of them the small punishment was a pleasant surprise. A few weeks ago Justice Crutcher announced that in all future gambling cases which came before him he would impose a fine of $100 and possibly send the proprietors of gambling houses to jail, in addition. On Saturday he explained that in imposing the fines of $30 each he did so because the crimes charged antedated his cases. In connection with Saturday's fines it is interesting to note that there came no case which would permit of a test of the Supreme Court decision as to the $20 limit on poker-playing and the question of gambling was also not known that there is, and has not been within the last week or so, a single case where a gambling house proprietor has been conducted his place, and therefore Richmond is clearer of this evil than for many months past. In other words, gambling has stopped flat, and the police have orders to immediately stop any sort of gambling.

A Valuable Medicine

For Coughs and Colds in Children.
"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and it seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by Richard Gibson druggist.

Neglect Means Danger.
Don't neglect biliousness and constipation. Your health will suffer permanently if you do. Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers cure such cases. M. B. Smith, Butternut, Mich., says "Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers are the most satisfactory pills I ever took. Never gripes or causes nausea." For sale by R. S. Leach and Sons.
